

We are out meeting with you in your community

Kia ora koutou,

We have been busy enjoying festivities at Sandringham Spring Festival, the Freeland Reserve Opening and the Wesley and Avondale Markets over the last month.

Vibrant communities with so much on offer, we heard from lots of locals – particularly families, about how they currently get to school and work, and how light rail will help them move around Auckland. Hear what locals had to say at Sandringham Spring Festival.

There are more events coming up for you to meet the Auckland Light Rail team. Answering your questions on Light Rail, travel times, urban development outcomes, and much more.

Pop down and see us here:

- Britomart Markets – 19 November (tomorrow)

Auckland Light Rail work accelerates with new company

Auckland Light Rail Ltd (ALR Ltd) has now been established as a Crown Entity Company to deliver what will become New Zealand's largest transport infrastructure project and completely change the way Aucklanders can travel around the city.

ALR Ltd's establishment coincides with the recent announcement of a team of preferred bidders made up of New Zealand and international experts to work with ALR Ltd on the planning and design phase. This is an important step; New Zealand's never tackled a project of this scale before and it's great to now have the experts we need on board and underway.
